AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

I, James J. Murray being duly sworn, depose and says that he is over the age of eighteen (18), I am not a party to this action and I am an agent of Beacon Hill Research, Inc.

That on the 18th day of August, 2015 at approximately the time of 12:00 pm, I attempted to serve a Summons and Complaint upon the defendant Richard A. Voke at his last and usual place of abode located at 3920 Mystic Valley Parkway, Unit 222, Medford, MA. I found this location to be a secured apartment building. I spoke with the security guard present at the time. He confirmed that Mr. Voke was a resident of the building and lived in unit 222. He said it was the policy of the building management to allow process servers in the building to effect service, but that if the resident was not at home, legal papers could not be posted to the door of the resident. I attempted service by knocking several times on the unit door, but no one answered and I heard no sounds coming from inside the apartment.

I returned to this same location on August 19th, 2015 at approximately 7:15 PM and again made several attempts at knocking on the unit door between 7:15 and 8:00 PM. No one answered the door on any of these occasions and I heard no sounds coming from inside the apartment.

I again returned to this same location on August 21st, 2015 at approximately 1:00 PM. I knocked on the apartment door and the door was opened by a white male approximately 65 years of age. The gentleman had grey hair and glasses and stood approximately 6 feet 1 inches tall and weighed approximately 200 pounds. I identified myself as a process server and informed the individual that I had a Summons & Complaint for Richard A. Voke. The gentleman said he would get him and immediately slammed the apartment door shut. Despite repeated knocking, no one would open the apartment door again. I then spoke through the apartment door, informing the individual that I was leaving the papers in an envelope addressed to Richard A. Voke marked personal and confidential. I left the envelope propped against the door of unit #222 at 3920 Mystic Valley Parkway, Medford, MA.
